

Denia Small house with private plot and large communal pool for sale

€ 115.000

INVESTMENT! Single storey small house with private plot and a wonderful community area with very large pool, terraces, seating areas and garden. The car is parked in the shaded carport and the house is entered through the hall. A bedroom with a built-in wardrobe and a shower room, which also houses the washing machine, are on one side. In the other wing, we find, thanks to the clever layout, an astonishingly spacious living-dining area with a semi-open kitchen, Swedish stove and a cozy fireplace. A glazed terrace (naya) rounds off the space. Behind it there is an open terrace with sun awnings and an outside shower. This house cannot accommodate a whole family, but is ideally suited for year-round living for a single person or as a good investment property for tourist summer rentals, because the pool landscape casts every vacation planner under its spell.
